

LIVE AT THE VERDICT

In early 2014 Dave, Enzo and I did our first trio tour together. Each evening I put my digital recorder on stage, just to have a personal record of what we were getting up to. When I listened back to this gig in Brighton, I really liked the simplicity of what I heard. I hope you enjoy it – it's not a very hi-fi recording but somehow it captures what playing live means to me.
